Permission to participate

The Commissioner for Children and Young People (the Commissioner) is responsible for advocating for the well-being of children and young people across South Australia.

To do this, she asks children and young people for their opinions and suggestions.

In this case we are asking you to participate in a conversation/workshop/consultation.

Your contributions, photos, videos will not be shared unless you give permission. However sometimes you might want your ideas, images, drawings shared.

By completing this form and ticking some or all of the boxes, I say Yes!

The Commissioner is allowed to:

- Record my age and gender
- Record and share* my views
- Take and share identifying photos of me during the session
- Take and share non-identifying photos of me during the session
- Record and share videos of me
- Record and share my voice
- Share photos of my written contributions
- Share my story in a non-identifying way
- I understand that I can withdraw at anytime

When we say we will 'share' your work that means we may use it in reports, social media, website, articles and other communications.*

Children and young people, as far as possible, should make decisions in dealing with their personal information themselves. Please sign and date below.
